APPLICATION SUMMARY

Please provide a title for your proposal and a brief summary. This information will be used to identify your proposal and for media and publicity purposes if your project is funded.

* Project Title (maximum 150 characters)

* Project Summary (maximum 400 characters)

In order to help with publicity, please provide a 1-2 sentence summary in THIRD PERSON, FUTURE-TENSE of your proposal. For on-campus events and projects, be sure to include the event title and the organization. For individual awards, please include your name, country of travel, and a plain language summary of your proposed project, internship, or research.

Example 1: Jane Doe will travel to Nigeria to intern with Non-Profit Organization. Her internship will focus on non-profit communications, specifically how to distribute relevant information to local stakeholders.

Example 2: The Research Collective organization will host noted ethnographer Sally Smith for on-campus lecture and brown-bag lunch.

SHORT ANSWER QUESTIONS

Please limit responses to approximately 300 words each.

* Describe in detail the resources you seek to collect and/or create in order to develop the course(s):

* Discuss the pedagogical and intellectual goals of the new course(s):

* Describe the need for the course(s) and how the course(s) complements existing ones:

* Provide a timeline for your planned activities from when you plan to collect resources to when you plan to teach the new course(s):

* As mentioned in the award description, CGI is spearheading a pan-university initiative to open access to global opportunities to those students traditionally under-represented. We prioritize proposals that reach this target population with global content.

Please explain how your new or expanded course will serve members of these populations. If applying to create a new course, describe how you will attract members of these groups.

If applying to add global content to an existing course, it would be helpful to include aggregated demographics of the students typically in the course (race/ethnicity, gender, financial aid status, etc.); we encourage you to work with your departmental staff to get these statistics early.
